

Jack Schmitt, Inc. Privacy Notice

In connection with your transaction, Schmitt Chevrolet, Inc. (the “dealership”) may obtain information about you as described in this notice, which the dealership handles as stated in this notice:

1. The dealership collects non-public personal information about you from the following sources:

- Information the dealership receives from you on applications or other forms;
- Information about your transactions with the dealership, its affiliates or others; and
- Information the dealership receives from a consumer reporting agency.

2. The dealership may disclose all of the information it collects, as described above.

3. The dealership may disclose non-public personal information about you to the following types of third parties:

- Financial service providers, such as bankers, lenders, and insurance agents;
- Non-financial companies, such as retailers, direct marketers, motor vehicle dealers, and publishers; and
- Others, such as non-profit or educational organizations.

The dealership may also disclose non-public personal information about you to nonaffiliated third parties as permitted by law.

4. The dealership may also disclose all of the information it collects, as described above, to companies and independent contractors that perform marketing services on the dealership’s behalf or to other financial institutions with whom the dealership has joint marketing agreements. The dealership may make such disclosures about you as a consumer, customer, or former customer.

5. The dealership restricts access to nonpublic personal information about you to those employees who need to know that information to provide products or services to you. The dealership maintains physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to guard your non-public personal information.
